STRIKERS [illegible] DOWN

Great Northern Telegraphers Vote to Return to Work at Once.

ST. PAUL, Aug. 18.—The strike of telegraphers on the Great Northern system was officially called off at 9:15 tonight, the men on that line having voted by a large majority to return to work. The question of continuing the strike or returning to work is being voted upon by the Northern Pacific operators, but up to 11 o'clock tonight not sufficient advice had been received to make definite announcement. President Perham, however, stated that the indications were that the Northern Pacific men would vote to continue the strike. He expects to have a definite knowledge of the result of the vote some time tomorrow.

DENVER MAKES A HARD FIGHT

OUT AFTER NEXT CONVENTION OF TRANSMISSISSIPPI CONGRESS—DAVID R. FRANCIS FOR PRESIDENT.

PORTLAND, Aug. 18.—The committee on permanent organization of the Transmississippi congress this afternoon unanimously decided to recommend the following officers for the ensuing year: President, David F. Francis of St. Louis, Mo.; first vice president, Col. H. D. Loveland, San Francisco; second vice president, Gov. L. B. Prince, of New Mexico; third vice president, M. B. Larrymore, of North Dakota; fourth vice president, B. A. Fellows, of Kansas; secretary, Arthur F. Francis, of Colorado (incumbent); treasurer, H. B. Topping, of Missouri.

It is probable that the next congress will go to Kansas City and that ex-Governor Francis of Missouri will be the next president.

The permanent organization committee today unanimously named Governor Francis for the position. As it is the custom of the congress to select its president from the state in which the state convention is to be held, this is taken as an indication that the convention will go to Kansas City. Denver is preparing to make a hard fight for the distinction, however.

RESERVED POINTS IN NEGOTIATIONS

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Aug. 18.—The Associated Press is able to state that the reserved point in Article 7, to which agreement was only reached in principle, relates to establishing the status south of Harbin from which the ceded branch of the Chinese eastern railroad is to begin. Russia returned a negative to Article 10, (the surrender of the interned warships) on the ground that such a proceeding would be against all international law and precedent. On Article 11 (the limitation of Russia's naval power) M. Witte declines to agree to allow such a provision to go into a treaty but offered to state on behalf of his government that Russia had no intention of maintaining in the far east a naval force which would constitute a threat against Japan or any other power.

JUDGE TUCKER UP AGAINST IT

CITIZENS OF GLOBE, ARIZ., FILE GRAVE CHARGES AGAINST HIM.

THEY ALLEGE THAT HE FORCED THEM TO PROVIDE HIM A RESIDENCE—CASE UNDER INVESTIGATION

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—Charges have been filed in the department of justice by citizens of Globe, Ariz., against Associate Judge Tucker, of the territorial court, which, it is said, involves his judicial and personal conduct. It is alleged that when Justice Tucker went to Arizona some months ago to assume his duties he let it be known to the citizens of Globe that if he made that city his home a residence must be provided for him and intimated that in case of failure on the part of the people to make this provision for him he would be compelled to take up his residence in another part of his district. It is charged that the residence was actually provided as requested. Other charges are made of more or less importance, all of which are under investigation by the department. A report is expected soon.

WEBB JAY IS FATALLY INJURED

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 18.—Webb Jay, of Cleveland, was probably fatally injured at Kenilworth park today in the ten-mile automobile race. At the three-quarter-mile post Jay's machine crashed through the fence, down a 15-foot embankment and into a pond of water. What caused the accident is not known, but it is believed that Jay was blinded by dust and steered into the fence. He was driving about a mile a minute when the accident happened.

Jay was racing with Lyttle and Burman. At the three-quarters Jay was third and the dust cloud of the other cars hung over him. Just at the three-quarters the track had been banked with dirt taken from the excavation which had left a deep hole just beyond the fence. Heavy rains had transformed the hole into a pond. Just as Jay rounded the turn his car crashed through the fence, down the embankment and into the water. Jay, unconscious, would have been drowned had not two spectators sitting on the fence near by gone to his assistance and dragged him out. He was taken to the German hospital where it was found that nine ribs were broken, one of his lungs was punctured and his right femur was fractured. Pleurisy and pneumonia, it is believed, will set in within 24 hours, and if he survives them he may live, the surgeons say.

PRESIDENT TO MAKE ANOTHER DESPERATE EFFORT

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Aug. 19.—The Associated Press has reason to believe that the purport of the president's conversation with Mr. Peierce was to arrange for one of the Russians to go to Oyster Bay. The president is understood already to be in communication with the Japanese through Baron Kaenko. Mr. Roosevelt is undoubtedly prepared to make a last effort to induce the warring countries to comprise.

PEACE NEGOTIATIONS SEEM DESTINED TO END IN FAILURE

Belief Prevails That Fate of Conference Is Already Sealed---Black Pessimism Reigns---Adjournment Is Taken Until Tuesday When Final Rupture Is Expected.

KING EDWARD IS NOW LENDING A HELPING HAND

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Aug. 18.—Black pessimism reigns at Portsmouth tonight. The prevailing view is that the fate of the peace conference is already sealed; that it has ended in failure and that all that now remains is for the envoys to meet on Tuesday, to which day they adjourned this evening upon completing the seriatim consideration of the Japanese terms, sign the final protocol, go through the conventions and bid each other farewell. In other words, that the meeting Tuesday will be what diplomacy calls "the seance d'adieu."

But there is still room for hope of a compromise. Neither President Roosevelt nor the powers will see the chance of peace shipwrecked without a final effort and pressure is being exerted, especially at Tokio to induce Japan to moderate her terms. Just what is being done or what is to be done has not transpired. King Edward is understood to be now lending a helping hand. At Tokio and St. Petersburg the final issue will be decided.

The Japanese have been implacable throughout the sitting. They have listened and explained, but they have yielded not an iota of the substance of their original demands. M. Witte accepted outright seven of the 12 Japanese conditions, one in principle and four, including the main issues, indemnity and Sakhalin, he rejected. The other two, limitation of naval power and the surrender of interned warships, might have been arranged had there been any prospect of agreement on the two points upon which the divergence seemed irreconcilable.

In the oral discussion of the terms, M. Witte yielded upon two articles, but substantially the result of the 13 sittings has only been to emphasize the position taken by M. Witte in the written reply he presented last Saturday to the Japanese terms. And now both sides turn to home for the last word before the cards are thrown face upward on the table next Tuesday, for the impasse reached today by the plenipotentiaries is recognized to be only a diplomatic fiction. If in the interim fresh instructions are received by either side, compromise is yet possible. But the chances are recognized as slim.

The cession of Sakhalin without indemnity was, according to the best inside information, the extreme limit to which M. Witte would even consent to go and the emperor has not yet given the word to even concede that.

And tonight suddenly a new factor has been introduced which, in the opinion of those most competent to judge, lessens materially the chances that he might do so, namely, the issuance of his manifesto granting a popular representative body to his subjects. The bearings of this "historical document," as M. Witte described it a few days ago, upon the issue, are easily comprehensible. It is bound to ameliorate the internal situation in Russia. It is the entering wedge for the realization of the century-old dream of the Russian people.

"It will create enthusiasm at home," said one of the members of the Russian mission, "because all thinking men realize that it means eventually a great change in the composition of the Russian state. It will be followed by a true parliament, a responsible ministry, a premier, and Russia will become a constitutional monarchy."

It is pointed out that the manifesto is timed like what the French call a coup d'foudre, and that its significance is too plain to be questioned. It was to have been issued last Saturday when the Russian reply was presented, but it was held over until the conclusion of the oral consideration of the Japanese terms. Meantime the terms had been published everywhere throughout Russia. The press, even the Liberal press, had replied that Russia could not pay money for the privilege of getting out of Manchuria.

The emperor had publicly proclaimed to his subjects on July 28 in reply to a telegram of the Oremburg clergy:

"The Russian people can rely on me. I will never conclude a peace humiliating or unworthy of great Russia."

The manifesto is Emperor Nicholas' answer to the Japanese demand for the payment of a war tribute. The grant of this broad reform is regarded as virtually an appeal to the Russian people for support to resist it.

The gravity of the situation from the Japanese point of view is contained in the following statement given to the Associated Press:

"I cannot say positively, because all things are possible, but I fear that the meeting on Tuesday will be the farewell session of the Washington conference. Japan has done her utmost for peace. Russia now knows Japan's irreducible minimum."

M. Witte himself tonight gave not the slightest encouragement. For publication he said:

"We meet Tuesday only to sign the protocol," with the accent on the word "only." Another bad sign was the change in the personal attitude of the plenipotentiaries toward each other. During the week they have been growing more and more friendly at the luncheon which they take together at the navy yard. This conversation was lively and even gay at times. Today they sat together and ate in silence. All seemed strangely constrained as if realizing that they could only agree to disagree and that the war must go on. Tonight the situation can be summed up in a single sentence—prompt and heroic action by outside influence alone can save the conference.

PRESIDENT IS ACTIVE AGAIN

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Aug. 18.—At midnight Assistant Secretary Peierce was hurriedly called to the Hotel Wentworth, where a message was awaiting him from the president. He at once wrote a lengthy reply. Later he was called to the telegraph instrument and for half an hour carried on a conversation by telegraph with the president, who was at the other end of the wire at Oyster Bay.

At 12:50 a. m. the telegraphic conversation ceased and Mr. Peierce left the hotel in his automobile. He said he was going home, but beyond that declined to make any statement.

"I can tell you nothing," he said to all the anxious inquirers among the newspaper men.

IMPERIAL MANIFESTO CALLING NATIONAL ASSEMBLY IS ISSUED

Representatives From Whole of Russia to Be Given a Voice in Government in the Capacity of a Consultative Body.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 18.—Emperor Nicholas today announced the grant to the people of Russia of a national consultative assembly to be formed by elected representatives from the whole of Russia. The imperial manifesto, which is published simultaneously here and at Moscow, and which will be read in all the churches of the empire, is dated at Peterhof today and is as follows:

"The emperor of Russia is strengthened by the indestructible solidarity of the emperor with the people and of the people with the emperor. This concord of emperor and people is the great moral force which has created Russia in the course of centuries by protecting her from all misfortunes and all attacks and has constituted up to the present time a pledge of unity, independence, integrity, material well-being and intellectual development.

"In our manifest of Feb. 24, 1903, we called attention to a close understanding of all the faithful sons of the fatherland, in order to protect the organization of the state by establishing on a firm basis the domestic life of the empire, and then we devoted ourselves to the task of co-ordinating elective public institutions with governmental authorities and of removing the disagreements existing between them which had reacted so disastrously on the normal course of our national life.

"The autocratic emperors, our ancestors, constantly had that object in view and the time has come to follow out their good intentions and to summon elected representatives from the whole of Russia to take constant and active part in the elaboration of the laws, thereby attaching to the higher state institutions a special consultative body, intrusted with the preliminary elaboration and discussion of measures, with the exception of the state budget.

"It is for this reason that while preserving the fundamental law regarding the authocratic power, we have deemed it well to form a lower house of the assembly and to approve the regulations for elections to it, extending the validity of these laws to the whole territory of the empire with such exceptions only as may be considered necessary in the case of some regions in which special conditions obtain.

"As regards participation in the labors of the lower house of delegates from Finland on questions concerning the empire in general and Finland in particular, we will take special measures.

"At the same time we have ordered the ministers to submit immediately for our approbation regulations for the elections to the douma (lower house) so that deputies from city governments and from the military province of the Don may be able to assemble not later than the middle of January, 1906.

"We reserve to ourselves entirely the care of perfecting the organization of the douma and when the course of events shall have shown the necessity for changes corresponding completely to the needs of the times and the welfare of the empire, we shall not fail to give at the proper moment the necessary directions.

"We are convinced that those who shall have been elected by the confidence of the whole people and who will thus be called upon to participate in the legislative work of the government will show themselves to be worthy of the imperial trust, in virtue of which they have been invited to co-operate in this great work, and that, in perfect harmony with other institutions and authorities of the state established by us, they will contribute profitably and zealously to our labors for the well-being of our common mother, Russia, and for the strengthening of the unity, the security and the greatness of the empire, as well as for the tranquility and prosperity of the people.

"In invoking the blessing of the Lord on the labors of the institutions established by us, and with unshakable confidence in the grace of God and in the infallibility of the great historical destinies reserved by Divine Providence for our beloved fatherland, we firmly hope that with help of God Almighty and with the combined efforts of all her sons, Russia will emerge triumphant from the trying ordeals through which she is now passing and will be born again in the strength, the greatness and the glory of her history, extending through a thousand years.

DEATH LIST IS ESTIMATED AS HIGH AS ONE HUNDRED

NORFOLK, Va., Aug. 18.—Thirteen bodies have been recovered to date and the death list of the wreck on the Atlantic Coast line at Bruce's station is yet far from complete. It is said that a score or more bodies floated down with the tide when the first submerged car was raised and that the other passenger coach jammed with dead negroes is now buried in the mud of the western branch of the Elizabeth river. The estimates of the loss of life range anywhere from 50 to 75 and even as high as 100.

In reporting to the Atlantic coast line officers here, Superintendent Wooten announced that "the two old coaches" had been gotten out, together with four sets of trucks and that two more dead had been found. These referred to an unknown colored man and an unknown colored woman.

Thousands traveled to Bruce's station today. The work of the divers was impeded by high tide and a stiff gale. Traffic on the Atlantic Coast line over this route had been necessarily suspended and the trains are being brought by connection with the Seaboard air line at Suffolk. Two weeks of forced labor will hardly repair the broken draw.

J. J. Thompson, a farmer, displayed considerable heroism when the disaster occurred. He leaped to the second coach, cut a hole in its roof and extricated 35 people just before the car became completely submerged. Cleveland Thompson, his son, who was an eyewitness of the disaster, today declared that Engineer Reig stuck to his post and fell from the engine and that the red danger flag used at the bridge had failed to show because of its having faded from long usage. The draw was open for a tug, which by quickly reversing engines, narrowly escaped being caught by the falling locomotive and cars.

About three score of the 159 excursionists have reached Norfolk. Of them 23 are at hospitals suffering from their injuries.

EAGLES ELECT HY D. DAVIS GRAND WORTHY PRESIDENT

DENVER, Aug. 18.—Grand Worthy President Hy D. Davis, Cleveland, O.; grand worthy vice president, Edward Krause, Wilmington, Del.; grand worthy secretary, A. E. Partridge, Kansas City, Mo.

After electing the above-named officers the grand aerie of the Fraternal Order of Eagles tonight proceeded to hear nominations for the remaining officers of the list, who will be voted on collectively tomorrow. In taking this action the delegates made known their anxiety to close the convention on schedule time tomorrow evening and thereby avoid a protracted session. To further this end a plan is on foot to refer the report of the judiciary committee on the revision of the constitution and by-laws of the order to an advisory committee, which will go over the report and recommend action on it as a whole. Up to this time the grand aerie has been considering the report by sections in the committee of the whole. Should this method be continued, it will not be possible for the body to finally adjourn before the middle of next week.

The election of officers demanded the attention of the delegates from early morning until nearly 11 o'clock tonight. All were chosen by acclamation, although the balloting for president continued for five hours and ten minutes, when the present grand worthy president, John F. Pelletier, of Kansas City, withdrew. Davis' selection was then made unanimous. Pelletier recognized the sentiment against a second term for the presidency and immediately ordered his name withdrawn.

UNION WILL AID PHILADELPHIANS

Toronto, Ont., Aug. 18.—The International Typographical union at its session today voted to pay $250 a week to aid the union printers in the strike against the Philadelphia Inquirer on the condition that the Philadelphia union will subscribe a like amount. A resolution that no union man shall join the militia was voted down. A resolution was offered asking the union to have a bill passed in the United States congress to pay a pension of $12 a week to wage earners who have earned $1,000 a year continuously for 21 years. It was referred. At the afternoon session an alleged school book monopoly in the United States was discussed.

ABANDONS ALL HOPE OF A PEACE TREATY

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Aug. 18.—Mr. DeMartens has abandoned evidently all expectations of seeing a treaty of peace concluded at this time. This evening he telegraphed his wife, saying he hoped to be able to sail for home next week.

BOY KILLED IN SWIMMING POOL

Special to the Gazette.

VICTOR, Aug. 18.—Gerald Barton, 13 years of age, was instantly killed this evening by having his neck broken in the swimming pool on Victor avenue. The body dove from a rafter 10 or 12 feet above the water. Going into that part of the pool where the water was but six feet deep, he hit the bottom, resulting in his death. He was the son of Mrs. T. J. Wilson, of 230 South Second street, Cripple Creek. The boy was a freshman in the Cripple Creek High school and was working this summer in the District laundry.

POWER OF NEW BODY OUTLINED

DECISIONS OF RUSSIAN ASSEMBLY WILL NOT BE BINDING.

CZAR'S WILL TO REMAIN ABSOLUTE—SUFFRAGE IS BASED ON PROPERTY QUALIFICATIONS.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 19.—Russia's national representative assembly, the fruit of decades of stress and striving for reform, which endows the Russian people with the right of being consulted, through their chosen representatives in the suggestion, preparation and repeal of legislation, today takes its places among the fundamental institutions of the empire.

In a solemn manifesto Emperor Nicholas announces this morning to his subjects the fruition of his plans summoning the representatives of the people as outlined by him in a rescript issued on March 3, last, and fixes the date for the first convention as mid-January and in a ukase addressed to the senate formally orders that body to register as the imperial will a law project formulating the nature, powers and procedure of the new governmental organization.

The manifesto, ukase and project are published this morning in special editions of the Official Messenger in St. Petersburg and Moscow. They will be given out for publication throughout the empire. The date of the occasion has been happily chosen with regard to the poetical symbolism so dear to the Russian heart, for on this day is celebrated the great religious feast of the transfiguration of Christ with the bringing to the church of the first fruits of the new harvest.

The new national assembly will be a consultative organization in connection with the council of the empire and not a legislative body. The powers of the emperor remain theoretically absolute. As the emperor is the supreme lawgiver and autocrat, the decisions of the douma have only recommendatory and not a binding force, though the rejection of any legislative measures by a two-thirds majority of both houses is sufficient to prevent that measure from becoming law.

The suffrage, though wide, is not universal. It is based on property qualifications, the peasantry having a vote through membership in communal organizations.

DESTRUCTIVE TORNADO SWEEPS NEBRASKA.

WELLFLEET, Neb., Aug. 18.—A destructive tornado passed north of this place last night, destroying barns, crops, stock and stacks of hay. At the farm of Votaw Brothers, 26 head of horses were crushed to death. Next in the path was the McReynold's ranch where it killed 56 cattle and crippled many more. So far as reported no lives were lost.

YOUNGEST SON OF GENERAL SAM HOUSTON IS DEAD

OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 18.—Temple Houston, youngest son of the famous General Sam Houston, known to almost every man, woman and child in the southwest, died today at his home in Woodlawn, Okla. He was 45 years old and leaves a wife and four children. Mr. Houston was born and raised in the west and has been in Oklahoma a number of years.

MYSTERIOUS BARON KANEKO CALLS ON PRESIDENT AGAIN

OYSTER BAY, Aug. 18.—President Roosevelt's only visitor today was Baron Kaneko, who studiously conceals his purpose, [illegible] but is known to be a confidential representative in this country of Japan. This was his fourth visit to the president in a few weeks and the second within a week. Reasons developed today for the statement that Baron Kaneko's call had relation to the proceedings of the peace conference at Portsmouth, although it appears likewise reasonably certain that he did not come as the representative of the Japanese envoys. He is known to be in direct communication with the Tokio government. Whether he was the bearer of messages from Japan to the president is not known but he came on his own initiative, the president not being aware of his coming until his arrival.

Baron Kaneko arrived on an afternoon train from New York and was accompanied by Secretary Barnes to Sagamore Hill at 4:30 p. m. President Roosevelt and the members of his family who were absent from home during the greater part of the day, had not returned when the baron arrived and did not return until some time afterwards. The president and Baron Kaneko had an extended conference but nothing was disclosed concerning it, neither of the participants caring to make any statement about it. Baron Kaneko left for New York at 8 p. m.

Kermit, the second son of the president left today for Deadwood, S. D., on a visit to Captain Seth Bullock, supervisor of the Black Hills forest reserve. Captain Bullock, who is a long time friend of the president, will entertain Master Roosevelt for about three weeks with the best hunting and fishing to be had in the Black Hills.

DISASTROUS WIND STORM AT TOPEKA

TOPEKA, Kan., Aug. 18.—Topeka was visited by a disastrous windstorm shortly after 3 o'clock this morning. The wind attained a velocity of 60 miles an hour and resulted in considerable damage. The building occupied by the Crosby Dry Goods company was completely unroofed and the Crawford theater was partially unroofed. The front walls of other brick buildings were partly blown down. Large trees were broken down all over the city and many skylights and windows were demolished. A number of residences were unroofed. The storm was accompanied by a rainfall of over an inch and the contents of the unroofed buildings were badly damaged.

SLIGHTLY IMPROVED

New Cases of Yellow Fever Numbered Sixty-two Yesterday.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 18.—The following is the official record to 6 p. m. Friday: New cases, 62; total to date, 1,282; deaths, 8; total to date, 183; new foci, 8; total to date, 278; number of cases under treatment, 415.

The figures of the day show nothing of special interest. Eleven of the 16 foci are above Canal street. Two more cases have appeared in the French asylum on St. Ann and Derbigny streets, making five in all. News from outside the city continues unfavorable. One case has been found in Hanson City, two in Shrewsbury and one in McDonogesville.

Pecan Grove plantation in St. Charles parish has five cases. Paterson reports six cases and no deaths. Alexandria's one patient died today.

VICTOR MINER COMMITS SUICIDE

O. C. SMITH KILLS HIMSELF IN HIS CABIN—INSANITY SAID TO BE THE CAUSE.

Special to the Gazette.

VICTOR, Aug. 18.—O. C. Smith, a well-known miner of this end of the district who was formerly employed on the Portland, early this morning blew his head and left hand off in a successful attempt at suicide at his cabin in Golconda near Victor.

Shortly after 7 o'clock neighbors in the vicinity of First and North Seventh street heard a loud explosion. Rushing out from their homes they saw a column of smoke ascend from the cabin. When the debris and smoke cleared away an investigation was started and Smith's dead body was found in a corner in the backroom of the cabin.

Coroner Gesell was immediately sent for and removed the body to the Victor undertaking parlors, while officers commenced working on the case to find out the cause of the dead.

Insanity seems to be the only cause assigned for the act.

In the building about $18 in money and two valuable watches were found.

Deceased was single and about 44 years of age. He has resided in the district for eight years, but little was known of his past. A life insurance policy which was found among his papers was made out to his mother as beneficiary, and gave her address as Salida.

JOHN WANAMAKER ADDRESSED NEGROES

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—John Wanamaker addressed the convention of the Negro Business league today, telling the negro business men that their success had no dependence on their color. He said:

"The very existence of this business league is to me an indictment against exploitation of progress by chance, favoritism or sympathy. You cannot afford to stop a single minute, in order not to become the ward of the nation."

The league re-elected Booker T. Washington as president.

THREE NEGRO MURDERERS WERE HANGED YESTERDAY

MEMPHIS, Aug. 18.—James N. Fleet, John Champion and Gene Bone, three negro murderers, were hanged here today. They killed women of their own race.

"HOW THE PESSIMISTS REGARD JAPAN"

is the title of a special feature article in The Sunday Gazette and Telegraph tomorrow. A good many people think that the so-called yellow peril is a very real menace to America and Europe. This view in its various aspects is fully set forth in tomorrow's paper. Be sure you read it.

"Romance of the Travelers' Guide." Amusing and pathetic stories of real life told by a ticket agent, Pullman conductor and train conductor. Illustrated with line drawings.

"Miss Jammit Latlit," an illustrated short story by Empeigh Merwin.

These are only three of the good things to be found in The Sunday Gazette and Telegraph tomorrow. Get the paper and read them all, and you will have put in a pleasant and profitable boost.

JUDGE LINDSEY TO ADDRESS BOYS AT THE CHAUTAUQUA

"Characters We Have All Met," was the subject of the lecture by Dr. D. F. Fox at the Chautauqua yesterday afternoon. It was a masterly delineation of the pessimist, the dry-goods-box philosopher, and other types of men commonly met in life, closing with a magnificent description of the personality demanded by the times. In thought, oratory, and diction Dr. Fox ranks with the greatest men upon the lecture platform of America.

Mrs. Grace Aspell Dunn, of Boston, gave a masterly impersonation of Scott's "Ivanhoe" in the evening. The large audience was charmed with her lifelike rendition of this great story, and would gladly welcome her for a future engagement.

In addition to the regular features of the musical program, Prof. Robert Stevens brilliantly executed upon the piano the "Dance of the Shepherds," by Pratt, Gottschalk's Etude, and a comical selection representing a young lady playing by ear.

Miss Rose Ivy also gave another exhibition of her marvelous and mystifying powers.

Today is "American Boy's day." The program will begin at 10:30 a. m., when Hon. B. B. Lindsey, the famous juvenile court judge of Denver, will deliver the address. Judge Lindsey comes especially for this purpose, and parents are urged to make it a family picnic day, bring their boys and girls, and remain all day. No admission will be charged to this morning session. At 11:30 a program of games and contests has been arranged under the direction of the Boy's department of the Y. M. C. A. The winner in each contest will receive a season ticket to the Chautauqua session of 1906. There will be two classes in each contest, one for boys under 12, the other for those over 12 years of age, and any boy desiring is privileged to enter.

At three in the afternoon Frank H. Gamel will lecture on "The Winners," and in the evening on "The Pranks, Perils, and Possibilities of the American Boy." This lecture is illustrated with the stereopticon, and is without doubt the greatest "Boy" lecture on the American platform.

The attendance is growing constantly, and the management hopes to see the auditorium crowded today, and through the remaining days of the session. Every feature of the program from now until the close Monday night is of unusual interest and attractiveness, and should command the unqualified support and liberal patronage of the public.

LOCALS PLAY DENVER C & S TEAM SUNDAY

The Colorado Springs baseball team will play the Colorado and Southern nine from Denver tomorrow afternoon at Boulevard park. The Denver bunch is a strong one, having a record of victories equaled by few of the Denver teams. It won the championship in the Rocky Mountain league of Denver. The locals are a nifty bunch and there will be something doing at 3:00 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. They will line up as follows:

Colorado Springs—Schwartz, c; Bernard, p; Gaunt, 1b; Patterson, 2b; DeNio, ss; Johns, 3b; Fitting, rf; Hill, cf; Moats, rf.

C. & S.—McIntosh, c; Gibson, p; Phennah, 1b; Numan, 2b; Harker, ss; Homrick, 3b; Sanders, lf; Wickton, cf; Gooding, rf.

OPERA HOUSE WAS CROWDED

ENTHUSIASTIC AUDIENCE ENJOYS SECOND PERFORMANCE OF "ENCHANTMENT"—MATINEE TODAY.

"Enchantment" was repeated last night before a much larger audience than on its first performance, and while the first rendition was well-nigh perfect, that of last night excelled it. Nothing serves to improve a performance so much as an enthusiastic audience, and last night the players seemed imbued with the same enthusiasm as was the audience. Encore followed encore until the smaller participants were obliged to sit down and rest. An equally creditable performance by [illegible] has never been [illegible] here. The W. R. C. and G. A. R. have certainly scored a success as far as the play and players are concerned.

At today's matinee the curtain will rise at 2:30 on the final performance of "Enchantment" when the entire Opera house will be thrown open at special rates, viz. 25 cents for any and every seat in the house. Considering the excellence of the performance, the cheapness of admission and the worthiness of the cause for which "Enchantment" is given, the management appeals for a house crowded to overflowing for the last time of "Enchantment."

Specialties by the Victor Lee company will be given between the acts.

POLICE RESPONDED TO CRY OF MURDER

"Murder! Murder!!"

The last car from Colorado City had just stopped at the corner of Huerfano and Tejon street, when the cries rang out on the midnight air. At the first cry three police officers started on the run toward the car and the next moment assisted in picking up a man who was rolling around in the dirt, and a big gun was lying near him. At the police station he gave his name as R. C. Quinlan. Another man that was with him at the time was booked as John Dunning. The charge against both of them was being drunk and fighting upon the street. W. W. Owens, Tom Shannon and Wm. Flaherty are also booked to make an appearance before the police magistrate this morning to answer to a charge of drunkenness.

PLEADS NOT GUILTY TO SERIOUS CHARGE

Hattie DeMay, who was arrested in Denver Thursday at the request of Sheriff O. P. Grimes, was brought to this city yesterday by a deputy sheriff and arraigned before Justice Ruby in the afternoon. She entered a plea of not guilty to adultery and the case was set for trial on August 22, bond being fixed at $500. The bond was at once given, being signed by the defendant and her attorney, Judge J. A. Orr. The complaint in the case was sworn to by Mrs. Hook, wife of Dr. Merritt B. Hook.

CASE AGAINST MRS. CROOKS WAS WITHOUT FOUNDATION

On motion of the district attorney in Justice Ruby's court yesterday the case of the People vs. Mrs. H. R. Crooks, who conducts a hairdressing establishment on Kiowa street, was dismissed with the remark that the action should never have been filed.

It was found that Miss Zwaid and Mrs. Finn went to the establishment for a shampoo, having been recommended to Mrs. Crooks' parlors by another customer. Both customers had very long and heavy hair, but as soon as the girl that was at work upon Miss Zwaid's hair had taken it down she discovered alleged insanitary conditions. The girl called Mrs. Crooks' attention to the matter and, after some crying and wringing of the hands, a rush order was sent to the drug store for the proper medicines. The statements of the hairdresser were verified in detail by two assistants. It was found that [illegible] tion it was necessary to burn the combs and brushes used in the operation and fumigate the parlors in a thorough manner, so that the regular charge if [illegible] was not so high after all.

Dizzy Spells

That dizzy spell is an important message from the heart—a plea for help. If this message receives no attention [illegible] some. Shortness of breath, palpitation, weak or fainting spells, smothering or choking sensations, pains around the heart, in side or shoulders, and so on, until it receives the necessary help, or is compelled to give up—stop.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure

which cures heart disease in every stage. Every day we read of sudden deaths from heart disease, yet it is a fact that the heart had been pleading for help, and gave up the struggle only when it had exhausted the last spark of vitality—and they call it sudden.

"For more than six years I was troubled with my heart. I would have dizzy spells; then difficulty in breathing, choking sensations, my heart would flutter, became painful. I could not breathe lying down. I commenced taking Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, and in a few weeks I was entirely cured."

COURT NEWS

The default of the defendants in the case of Dennistown M. Bell vs. A. R. Gumaer et al., was entered in the district court yesterday, for failure to answer within the time allowed by law. The action is to recover $7,800 alleged to be due upon promissory notes.

Trial of the case of the People vs. Dr. Arnold Kingsley of Denver is set for today before Justice O. R. Dunnington, the charge being that of cruelty in leaving a team of horses, belonging to T. A. Hank of Palmer Lake, in the creek to drown.

William Douglas was released from the county jail yesterday upon an order from the district court, the prisoner having served his sentence.

Trial of the case of Fehringer vs. Adams, the last of the liquor damage suits, which was set for yesterday in the court of Justice Ruby, was continued for ten days by consent of counsel upon both sides.

Grover C. Warner, a railroad newsboy, was found guilty of shortchanging Wilford Race, a passenger on the Rock Island railroad, in the court of Justice Dunnington and fined $20 and costs. In default of cash the young man was remanded to the county jail.

LICENSE GRANTED—A marriage license was granted yesterday to Orlando R. Kline and Miss Ella W. Kline, both of Fort Collins. Although of the same name it was stated that the couple were not in any way related.

ACQUITTED—Richard Hardiman, colored, was given a trial in the court of Justice Dunnington yesterday afternoon upon a charge of assaulting N. J. Bradsky. The jury returned a verdict finding the defendant not guilty and assessed the costs against the prosecuting witness.

COLORADO DAY PROGRAM AT PORTLAND EXHIBITION

The program for Colorado day at the Portland exhibition has been arranged. President Good of the exposition and the commissioners will tender a dinner in the evening at the New York building to Governor McDonald and his party. After dinner Governor McDonald will deliver a brief address at the New York pavilion and his address will be followed by an illustrated lecture on Colorado by Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert M. McClurg, who last year gave Colorado lectures throughout the east, their itinerary covering such institutions as the University of Virginia. Mr. and Mrs. McClurg left yesterday for Portland.

The Colorado train leaves Denver at 9 o'clock this morning and Colorado Springs at 11:35 a. m. The train will carry four Pullmans, one baggage car and a diner. One car is reserved for the governor and his staff. No special will be run for the return.

MUSIC LOVERS WILL GET A TREAT SUNDAY AT CASINO

William A. Willet, the eminent baritone, will be the feature of interest at tomorrow evening's concert at the Broadmoor Casino. Mr. Willet is conducting the Chautauqua chorus and enjoys a wide reputation as a soloist of exceptional powers. The occasion will be one of the few on which he will be heard in Colorado Springs, and the announcement that he will supply two numbers on tomorrow night's program at the Casino will be received with pleasure by music lovers throughout the city.

TRUE

Mother's Friend

The older the prospective mother be the more difficult the ordeal through which she must pass before she experiences the glory of the maternal state. This was true before was introduced, but now tangible evidence in the shape of countless mothers of advanced years who have used it with entire success forces us to gladly refute the integrity of this statement.

Old or young, the result is the same. It is simply indispensable during the parturient state, and absolutely invaluable at the crucial time.

For external massage, easy and simple to apply, wonderful in its effect, it surely is a living monument to the truth of that old adage, "What's in a name?" We reply, "simply Mother's Friend." $1.00, at all druggists. Send for book, "Motherhood." It is free.

IF THE NEGOTIATIONS FAIL.

IT IS a ghastly reflection that the lives of untold thousands of men in Manchuria hang on the deliberations of two diplomats in Portsmouth. If Russia refuses to accept the Japanese terms the immediate consequence will without doubt be a pitched battle between the one million men, more or less, in the armies of Oyama and Linevitch. The contest would last for many days and cost perhaps a hundred thousand lives, for it would be the supreme effort of the Japanese finally to crush their adversaries. The Russians, on the other hand, would be spurred to desperation by the knowledge that on that battle rested their only hope of securing better terms than those they had rejected, and that if they lost it would mean even more onerous conditions.

Field Marshal Oyama is known to have about 500,000 men in his combined armies, while his opponent in the great game has probably 100,000 fewer. So far Linevitch has had no opportunity to show what he could do. It remains to be seen whether he can accomplish what the supposedly abler Kuropatkin so signally failed to do—that is, check the Japanese advance. If he can do this even for a very short time it will enhance his country's prestige and perhaps enable her to borrow more money. But it is extremely doubtful whether one victory would make it possible for the Russians to secure better terms than they are now offered. It is more reasonable to suppose that it would only cause the Japanese to redouble their efforts completely to overwhelm the Czar's armies.

In the last few weeks the Japanese have been quietly landing reinforcements on Sakhalin Island, and the resistance to be expected from that quarter is scarcely worth considering. The Japanese are complete masters of the sea, and there is no point of vantage to be gained on land except Vladivostok, which they apparently do not want. This leaves northern Manchuria as the sole battleground, and Linevitch's army as the only fighting force yet to be conquered. If the peace negotiations fail there is therefore only one course open to the Japanese—to capture or destroy this army. That they will do it—if the necessity arises—there can be hardly a doubt. It probably can not be done in one battle, but the Japanese have the advantage of numbers, and they have shown their ability to engage in fierce fighting for weeks in succession without giving way to exhaustion.

Linevitch is an undetermined factor. He may prove to be the superior of Kuropatkin, but this can not reasonably be expected. The chances are that if fighting is resumed it will be the same old story—a succession of battles resulting always in Japanese victory and ending finally in the complete wreck of Russia's hopes. Then for another peace conference with the enforced acceptance by Russia of terms far more onerous than those now offered.

CONGER'S MISSION.

THE announcement that Edwin H. Conger, formerly Minister to China and now Ambassador to Mexico, is to be sent to China to attempt a settlement of the boycott against American goods, shows that the Administration regards this as a very serious matter. Mr. Conger served the American Government at the court of Peking for several years, not brilliantly by any means, but with a fair degree of satisfaction. The press dispatches now comment on his popularity and influence with the high Chinese officials, but it is a fact that a year or more ago, before he was recalled and sent to Mexico, there was some talk in this country of the Administration being anxious to replace him as speedily as possible.

If the reports then current were true it is rather surprising that he should now be sent on such an important mission. W. W. Rockhill, our present Minister to China, is one of the most thoroughly informed men on Far Eastern affairs in the world, and it would seem that he can do as much as anybody to bring about a settlement of the present difficulties. However, it is stated that Mr. Conger's presence in China will in no way affect Mr. Rockhill's position.

Meanwhile the boycott continues to spread. The Chinese government is said to have ordered that it be stopped, but either the government is not acting in good faith or else it is utterly impotent in such matters. Mr. Conger says that if the government should order the viceroys to see that it is ended there would be no further trouble. If this is true the Chinese must be a very tractable people. It is said that 10,000 of the leading merchants have signed the boycott pledge, and that the powerful commercial guilds are energetically pushing the movement. If such a thing were done in this country or in any European country it is difficult to imagine the boycotters desisting at the command of the government. The people have a right to buy goods from whom they please, and by the same token, they have a right to withhold their patronage from anybody that incurs their displeasure.

There is no denying the seriousness of the situation, and it is earnestly to be hoped that Mr. Conger will be able to restore the old friendly relations between Chinese merchants and American exporters. The Chinese market is worth $50,000,000 a year, and until this unfortunate affair began it was constantly growing better. If the boycott continues it is bound to demoralize the American cotton trade, which could cause an industrial disturbance that would be felt all over the country.

COCKRAN'S CONVERSION.

WHEN Secretary Taft started to the Philippines with a distinguished party, in which there was a slight admixture of anti-imperialists, the fear was expressed that before returning them to their native land he would hypnotize these recalcitrant gentlemen into renouncing the anti-imperialist faith. The prediction has been verified, at least so far as the Hon. W. Bourke Cockran is concerned, and the Hon. W. Bourke Cockran counts for a great deal in the anti-imperialist camp.

Newspaper readers are already familiar with Mr. Cockran's declaration, made at the Taft banquet in Manila, that the United States is "acting as God's instrument in shaping the prosperity of the Philippines." Continuing, he said, "I feel the most profound confidence in the success of American destiny in the Philippines. I shall earnestly study and assist in the unselfish exploitation and development of the islands under President Roosevelt and Secretary Taft. I admit that it is impossible to fix a time for granting independence, but I believe it is possible to prescribe the conditions deserving independence; namely, when order is maintained, when the dignity of labor is understood, and when the islands are self-supporting."

There is not the slightest doubt that Mr. Cockran's conversion is sincere and complete. The scales have dropped from his eyes and he no longer sees through a glass darkly. He has lined up at last on the side of his country. But will the good influence extend to Senator Patterson? This would be the real miracle, for compared with him, Cockran is as easily influenced as a child. Cockran may listen to reason, but Patterson—never. Every other member of the party that made the trip to the Philippines may come back a convert to the Administration policy, but Patterson, we may be sure, will return more than ever convinced that the people of the distant isles are being ground down beneath the iron heel of imperialistic oppression.

The Springfield (Mass.) Republican says the Equitable disclosures show the hollowness of the claim that the country is enjoying prosperity. On the contrary, they show that there are at least 600,000 policy holders in the country so prosperous that they throw their money away without knowing where it goes or what they will get for it.

Secretary Wilson notes that since he took hold of the Department of Agriculture he has "turned out nearly 300 people who were misfits, or were leaning in the wrong direction, or were incompetent." The Department of Agriculture, under Mr. Wilson's predecessor, must have been a pretty bad nest.

It is said that Governor Folk, of Missouri, smokes twenty strong cigars a day. It is reported too, that he took a drink of whisky the other day. If Folk ever runs for the Presidency we fear he will have to get along without the support of the mothers' societies.

The Sultan of Morocco is about to borrow $5,000,000 from German bankers. When Kaiser Willie tells the moneyed men of Berlin to loan good cash to dead beats in order to further his political game there is nothing to do but grin and produce the money.

The announcement that Governor La Follette will resign next month to take his seat in the Senate will be a great relief to the Wisconsin railroads, but it will hardly bring joy to the hearts of the railroad representatives at Washington.

One hundred and forty tourists were reported snowbound in the Austrian Alps a few days ago. Why should even that many tourists go to the Alps when Colorado is waiting to show them scenery infinitely grander, with or without snow?

John W. Gates is said to be neglecting the races at Saratoga in order to play golf. The next thing we may expect to hear that Pat Sheedy has taken to tiddledywinks.

A Philadelphia centenarian's recipe for long life is simply, "Be cheerful." This is something like the advice, "Be honest and you will prosper."

It is costing the Government $250 a day to entertain the peace envoys and their suites, but the increased prestige is easily worth the money.

The New Orleans health authorities ought to send for Wizard Burbank. He might be able to produce a yellow-feverless mosquito.

Apparently, the dove of peace will not be allowed to settle down in Portsmouth long enough to build its nest.

MAY TEST POWER OF MUSIC.

Among the other equipment on the Roosevelt, the ship in which Peary has gone on another junketing trip up north, is a pianola. Wonder what the mission of the pianola is in the search for the north pole.—Telluride Journal.

BALANCE ON THE WRONG SIDE.

There were 81 deaths and only 35 births in Pueblo during the month of June, according to the official health report. Pueblo evidently needs a little race suicide agitation.—Lamar Sparks.

LOOKING FORWARD.

The czar of Russia, it is said, has $25,000,000 invested in English securities, and it is also declared that he would in an extreme crisis fly and live in England, as other troubled monarchs have done before him. Then he has a second string to his bow in $6,000,000 invested in American rails, iron and coal.—Telluride Journal.

PROSPERITY IN THE CAMP.

If the business of any man in Cripple Creek is not satisfactory the blame does not rest upon the condition of the mines, and should be placed where it belongs. So far as the operation of the mines and their output of the yellow metal, conditions were never so satisfactory as at the present time, and this condition is certain to become more pleasing with the continued development of the district.—Cripple Creek Times.

NEWSPAPER SWELLS IN KANSAS.

Frank P. MacLennan, editor of the Topeka Journal, is building a fine country home on Martin's Hill, five miles west of Topeka. Just think of it! A Kansas editor owning a "country home!" That ought to make every newspaper man in the state swell with pride.—Kansas City Journal.

PERILS OF BUGGY RIDING.

Thursday evening while E. M. Webb and daughter, Gladys, were taking a buggy ride they were coming down the road at a pretty good rate, when they ran over a root which bounced them off of the seat and when they came down they went clear through the seat.—Sand Lake Cor. Tillamook (Ore.) Herald.

CARRYING OUT ORDERS.

If I had had time to die, I would probably have done so before now; but Ophelia has had me on the go ever since her return. I had to paint the porch floor and the wood house every morning before breakfast for the past three days, and actually have not had time to say my prayers. I am ordered to paint the whole house, and will start about it as soon as I can get a tub full of red mud, which I will get as soon as the rain holds up.—Keysville Correspondence in Charlotte (Va.) Gazette.

THE HANGING OF THE CRANE.

A Human Serial of Heatherstone Pictures.

("One morning in the spring of 1867," writes Mr. T. B. Aldrich, "Mr. Longfellow came to the little house in Pinckney street (Boston), where we had set up housekeeping in the light of our honeymoon. As we lingered a moment at the dining room door Mr. Longfellow turning to me, said: 'Ah, Mr. Aldrich, your small round table will not always be closed. By and by you will find new young faces clustering about it; as years go on, leaf after leaf will be added until the time comes when the young guests will take flight, one by one, to build nests of their own elsewhere. Gradually, the long table will sink to a circle again, leaving two old people sitting there alone together. This is the story of life, the sweet and pathetic poem of the fireside. Make an idyl of it. I give the idea to you.' Several months afterward I received a note from Mr. Longfellow in which he expressed a desire to use this motif in case I had done nothing in the matter. The theme was one peculiarly adapted to his sympathetic handling, and out of it grew 'The Hanging of the Crane.' Just when the poem was written does not appear, but its first publication was in the New York Ledger March 28, 1874. Mr. Longfellow's old friend, Mr. Sam Ward, had heard the poem and offered to secure it for Mr. Robert Bonner, the proprietor of the Ledger, 'touched,' as he wrote to Mr. Longfellow, 'by your kindness to poor ... and haunted by the idea of increasing handsomely your noble charity fund.' Mr. Bonner paid the poet $3,000 for this poem.")

I.

The lights are out and gone are all the guests
That thronging came with merriment and jests
To celebrate the hanging of the crane
In the new house, into the night are gone;
But still the fire upon the hearth burns on,
And I alone remain.

O fortunate, O happy day,
When a new household finds its place
Among the myriad homes of earth,
Like a new star just sprung to birth,
And rolled on its harmonious way
Into the boundless realms of space!

So said the guests in speech and song,
As in the chimney, burning bright,
We hung the iron crane tonight,
And merry was the feast and long.

II.

And now I sit and muse on what may be,
And in my vision see, or seem to see,
Through floating vapors interfused with light,
Shapes indeterminate, that gleam and fade,
As shadows passing into deeper shade
Sink and elude the sight.

For two alone, there in the hall,
Is spread the table round and small;
Upon the polished silver shine
The evening lamps, but, more divine,
The light of love shines over all;
Of love that says not mine and thine,
But ours, for ours is thine and mine.

They want no guests, to come between
Their tender glances like a screen,
And tell them tales of land and sea,
And whatsoever may betide
The great forgotten world outside;
They want no guests; they needs must be
Each other's own best company.

III.

The picture fades; as at a village fair
A showman's views, dissolving into air,
Again appear transfigured on the screen,
So in my fancy this; and now once more,
In part transfigured, through the open door
Appears the selfsame scene.

Seated, I see the two again,
But not alone; they entertain
A little angel unaware,
With face as round as is the moon,
A royal guest with flaxen hair,
Who, throned upon his lofty chair,
Drums on the table with his spoon,
Then drops it careless on the floor,
To grasp at things unseen before.

Are these celestial manners? These
The ways that win, the arts that please?
Ah, yes; consider well the guest,
And whatso'er he does seems best;
He ruleth by the right divine
Of helplessness, so lately born
In purple chambers of the morn,
As sovereign over thee and thine.
He speaketh not; and yet there lies
A conversation in his eyes;
The golden silence of the Greek,
The gravest wisdom of the wise,
Not spoken in language, but in looks
More legible than printed books,
As if he could but would not speak.
And now, O monarch absolute,
Thy power is put to proof; for, lo!
Resistless, fathomless, and slow,
The nurse comes rustling like the sea,
And pushes back thy chair and thee,
And so good-night to King Canute.

IV.

As one who, walking in a forest, sees
A lovely landscape, through the parted trees,
Then sees it not for boughs that intervene;
Or as we see the moon sometimes revealed
Through drifting clouds, and then again concealed,
So I behold the scene.

There are two guests at table now;
The king, deposed and old grown,
No longer occupies the throne—
The crown is on his sister's brow;
A princess from the Fairy Isles,
The very pattern girl of girls,
All covered and embowered in curls,
Rose-tinted from the Isle of flowers,
And sailing with soft, silken sails
From far-off Dreamland into ours.
Above their bowls with rims of blue
Four azure eyes of deeper hue
Are looking, dreamy with delight;
Limpid as planets that emerge
Above the ocean's rounded verge,
Soft-shining through the summer night.
Steadfast they gaze, yet nothing see
Beyond the horizon of their bowls;
Nor care they for the world that rolls
With all its freight of troubled souls
Into the days that are to be.

V.

Again the tossing boughs shut out the scene,
Again the drifting vapors intervene,
And the moon's pallid disk is hidden quite;
And now I see the table wider grown,
As round a pebble into water thrown
Dilates a ring of light.

I see the table wider grown,
I see it garlanded with guests,
As if fair Ariadne's crown
Out of the sky had fallen down;
Maidens within whose tender breasts
A thousand restless hopes and fears,
Forth reaching to the coming years,
Flutter awhile, then quiet lie,
Like timid birds that fain would fly,
But do not dare to leave their nests;
And youths, who in their strength elate,
Challenge the van and front of fate,
Eager as champions to be
In the divine knight-errantry
Of youth, that travels sea and land,
Seeking adventures, or pursues,
Through cities, and through solitudes
Frequented by the lyric Muse,
The phantom with the beckoning hand,
That still allures and still eludes.
O sweet illusions of the brain!
O sudden thrills of fire and frost!
The world is bright while ye remain,
And dark and dead when ye are lost!

VI.

The meadow-brook, that seemeth to stand still,
Quickens its current as it nears the mill;
And so the stream of Time that lingereth
In level places, and so dull appears,
Runs with a swifter current as it nears
The gloomy mills of Death.

And now, like the magician's scroll,
That in the owner's keeping shrinks
With every wish he speaks or thinks,
Till the last wish consumes the whole,
The table dwindles, and again
I see the two alone remain.
The crown of stars is broken in parts;
Its jewels, brighter than the day,
Have one by one been stolen away
To shine in other homes and hearts.
One is a wanderer now afar
In Ceylon or in Zanzibar,
Or sunny regions of Cathay;
And one is in the boisterous camp
Mid clink of arms and horses' tramp,
And battle's terrible array.
I see the patient mother read,
With aching heart, of wrecks that float
Disabled on those seas remote,
Or of some great heroic deed
On battlefields, where thousands bleed
To lift one hero into fame.
Anxious she bends her graceful head
Above those chronicles of pain,
And trembles with a secret dread
Lest there among the drowned or slain
She finds the one beloved name.

VII.

After a day of cloud and wind and rain
Sometimes the setting sun breaks out again,
And, touching all the darksome woods with light,
Smiles on the fields, until they laugh and sing,
Then like a ruby from the horizon's ring
Drops down into the night.

What see I now? The night is fair,
The storms of grief, the clouds of care,
The wind, the rain, have passed away;
The lamps are lit, the fires burn bright,
It is the Golden Wedding day.
The guests come thronging in once more,
Quick footsteps sound along the floor,
The trooping children crowd the stair,
And in and out and everywhere
Flashes along the corridor
The sunshine of their golden hair.
On the round table in the hall
Another Ariadne's crown
Out of the sky hath fallen down;
More than one Monarch of the Moon
Is drumming with his silver spoon;
The light of love shines over all.
O fortunate, O happy day!
The people sing, the people say.
The ancient bridegroom and the bride,
Smiling, contented and serene
Upon the blithe, bewildering scene,
Behold, well pleased on every side
Their forms and features multiplied,
As the reflection of a light
Between two burnished mirrors gleams,
Or lamps upon a bridge at night
Stretch on and on before the sight,
Till the long vista endless seems.

—Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.

AMUSEMENTS

"YORK STATE FOLKS."

The beautiful pastoral play, "York State Folks," with the original cast, will be presented at the Opera house next Tuesday evening on a very elaborate scale.

"York State Folks" has been conceded by critics, the clergy and the public as being the best pastoral play that has been produced. It is devoid of "horse play" and that element of clap trap commonly found in this sort of plays.

"York State Folks" is said to be exquisite, rural portraiture elaborate with a hundred deft touches of naturalness, bespeaking on the part of the author, not only close observation, but also the possession of the true artistic temperament. The scenic production is entirely new and as some improvements have been made in that direction the management feels safe in promising even a better production than that given in Chicago, Boston and Philadelphia and all the larger cities. Popular prices of admission will be charged—25c, 50c, 75c and $1.00.

LAST APPEARANCE OF VICTOR LEE THIS EVENING

At the Opera house this evening will be the last appearance of Victor Lee the popular magician and his company of vaudeville artists. The show is very pleasing and well worth the prices of admission—10 and 20 cents. Two performances will be given at 8 and 9:15 o'clock.

"WHIRLEY GIRLEY" BY CURTIS MUSICAL COMEDY CO.

"Whirley Girley," the exquisite musical comedy will be presented by The Curtis company at the Opera house Monday evening composed of such favorite artists as Chas. J. Burkhardt, Miss Ida Howell, Frank E. Mitchell, Harrison Green, Max Burkhardt, Miss Daisy Lyle, Miss Allie Willard, The Marlow Sisters, and that bewitching bevy of femininity, the "Broilers," sixteen pretty dancing and singing girls, magnificently gowned, and who are leaving a trail of broken hearts from coast to coast, a company of twenty-five, all told, will be seen. To miss it would be like missing the Barnum and Bailey greatest show on earth. From beginning to end it is a mass of loveliness, laughter and music. The company will appear every evening next week, excepting Tuesday. Beginning on Wednesday they will give a bargain matinee every afternoon. Matinee prices will be 15 and 25 cents. Evening prices will be 25, 35 and 50 cents.

SPRINGS PEOPLE TO SHARE IN THE DRAKE MILLIONS

World a colossal fortune, the estate of Sir Francis Drake, is to be divided, and Colorado heirs will share handsomely in the division of the wealth of the famous admiral who was the first English sailor to circle the globe.

Among the Colorado people who are to become rich from this estate are Mrs. Janet Bowersley of Colorado City and T. W. Hamlin, a poultry breeder of this city who lives north of The Roswell race tracks.

The Sir Francis Drake estate is valued at $200,000,000 and is increasing in value every year. Eleven million dollars, it is estimated, will be the share of the Colorado heirs, only ten of whom have so far been discovered.

Under the laws of England one heir can not present his claim and have it allowed. Claims must be presented in aggregations of 50 or more. Captain George W. Walrond, of Denver, a retired English officer and a direct descendant of the famous mariner, is gathering a list which will enable him to draw a million or more dollars at an early date.

OIL COMPANY BUYS A $7,000 OUTFIT TO BORE TWO WELLS

At a meeting of the Colorado Springs oil company in the offices of Yates & McClain yesterday afternoon, the 12 promoters each gave their individual checks for $100 to be placed in the treasury with the $3,000 to be received from the sale of the block of 20,000 shares which has been offered to the general public and which has been largely subscribed for. The 12 men who suggested the enterprise and who are giving their time for its promotion felt that they would not be justified in issuing any promoters' stock. By paying for what they take, all shareholders will be on an equal footing. This is perfectly fair as it is to be purely a prospecting company for development purposes.

The company yesterday contracted for a $1,000 boring outfit and paid for it. This outfit is complete, embracing a derrick, drill and ample casing. It is capable of going down 3,000 feet, but the promoters hope to tap a gusher at 1,500 feet. They will bore two wells.

Ten thousand shares of the promotion stock at 10 cents a share was sold yesterday. The money raised in this way will be spent in the actual drilling. The 320 acres which the company desired as a starter has already been secured and it is now hoped to get one or two other prospects which give great promise of results.

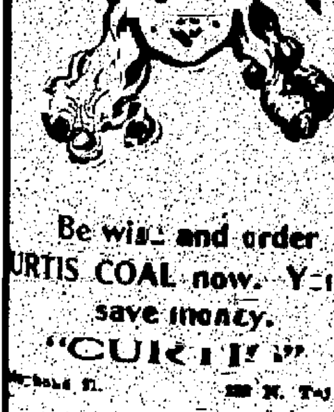

There is something of a mystery surrounding developments of the Kennedy well. Mr. Flemming, the Kennedy expert, returned only this week from the east. Boring was resumed Tuesday. Yesterday operations are said to have again been suspended and Mr. Flemming again went east. What significance his visit may have is unknown, but the rapidity of his movements is opening the eyes of those who have interests in that vicinity.

THIRTY-ONE SPRINGS PEOPLE WINNERS IN UINTAH LOTTERY

Up to last night Colorado Springs scored 31 winners in Uncle Sam's Uintah land drawing, Colorado City scored 10 winners and Manitou two. A great many of the winners appeared at the business office of the Gazette and registered yesterday, and more will call today, the idea of all going to the reservation together and selecting their land together being widely indorsed.

CITY'S HEALTH SHOWN BY LOW DEATH RATE

For the first eighteen days of this month there were but thirteen deaths recorded in Colorado Springs and of this number seven of the decedents had been in the city from four hours to six weeks. Five deaths were due to tuberculosis cases received here too late to be benefited. In other words there were but six deaths of residents of the city, and all of the six had been here less than three years except one.

NORTH CAROLINA COLORED LABOR NOT SATISFACTORY

Arthur Roscower, of North Carolina, is in Colorado Springs on a peculiar mission. Mr. Roscower, who is editor of the Goldsboro Headlight, was commissioned by the governor of North Carolina to come to Colorado and see how this state solves its labor problem, not as regards strikes, but with reference to the foreign element. North Carolina, according to Mr. Roscower, is dissatisfied with the quality of colored labor that is available in the present generation. The young darky is not the steady, industrious character who followed the plow and bent to the cradle and scythe thirty years ago. Mr. Roscower says that he is arrogant, uncertain and not to be depended on. If the state could receive a good class of immigrants they would be welcome, but the people of the south of Europe are not desired.

"This question of drawing the immigrants from Europe to the Southern states is attracting a great deal of interest, not alone in North Carolina, but in a number of the states that have been classed in the 'black belt,'" said Mr. Roscower last night. "At the next session of the legislature in our state a law will be passed providing for a commissioner of immigration who will be stationed at Ellis Island, New York. His duties will be to select the best homeseekers and induce them to settle in the state of North Carolina.

"The younger generation of negroes are worse than useless and the white people who employ labor have decided to get rid of them. Whenever he gets a dollar in his pocket the young negro is of no use; he will not work, but will persist in lying around groggeries. The older generation of colored people were all right, but the blacks of today are hindering the growth of the south.

"What will become of them? We will make a present of them to the northern states and see if they can do better with them. I notice, though, that the north has come to look at the race issue of the south in a different manner from what it did some years ago.

"I have been in Minnesota and Wisconsin, out among the farms and lumber camps. The Scandinavians and the Germans do well. I will recommend to the governor on my return that as many of these people as can be got to go south be given every encouragement. They make good citizens. The Scandinavians are great workers.

"We have cotton factories and immense quantities of lumber in our country and there is room for all the good immigrants we can secure in a number of years."

TINIEST OF GLOBE-TROTTERS HAS TRAVELED 180,000 MILES

The tiniest globe-trotter in the world, with the biggest name and the sunniest smile, as well as a dimple that is distracting, is at the Antlers hotel today. Friends with all the world, this charming little lady goes laughing from mountain to ocean and back to the hills again.

Kathryn Leonore Adelia Glenwood Moran, that is the name of the wee enchantress. She came from the land of nowhere into the happy world at Glenwood Springs, September 12, 1900, while her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Moran, of Chicago, were guests at the Hotel Colorado. If you are a mathematician you can figure for yourself that she is approaching the dignity of a fifth birthday anniversary, and if you have been received by her you will be very sure that she appreciates the burden of her years.

When she was 18 days old her parents, who are grown-up children of the wanderlust and the tribe of Wandering Jews, lifted her from her cozy cradle and started with her upon the long, long journey which has never yet found an ending. So Baby Moran has in her brief span of time traveled more than 180,000 miles, touching at every point of interest which a world replete with engaging places can boast. They figured it all up for her the first day of July last and the record at that time was 178,000 miles, with not an accident, not a day of illness, not even a slight cold nor any one of those minor ills which child life is heir to, to mar the long journey.

Often she has been the honored guest of President Roosevelt and his babies at the White house, where her small feet were allowed to stray at will in the beautiful grounds and the tiny white hands were forbidden no flower of the conservatory. President Roosevelt filled her arms on one occasion with rare roses and asked that she have a picture made as she was at that minute just for him. In it she appears as the brightest blossom of the radiant bouquet.

There is no state in the Union which her small imperial feet have not touched. There is no resort of fame in America or abroad at which she has not delayed for a breathing spell. Her favorite of all the beautiful places of the world is the Royal Poinciana hotel at Palm Beach, Florida. Each visit there she detains her parents for a longer stay than their plans include.

George E. Moran's initials spell the word gem and he naturally recognizes this bright little daughter as the fulfillment of the promise of that word. Mr. Moran publishes the only alphabetical city dictionary printed in America. It is a dictionary of Chicago, after the fashion of the Charles Dickens' dictionary of London. Its compilation and circulation takes him into every city of the world. He is the American type of self-made man, having worked from office boy to the business management of the old Chicago Times and from the place of a reporter to managing editor of that paper. He now sustains an intimate business relation with the Chicago Chronicle. Mrs. Moran is a native of Baltimore and a beautiful woman.

THREATENED LITIGATION

MINORITY IN BONNIE NELL MERGER WANT TO KNOW WHERE TREASURY CASH IS GONE.

Trouble is brewing over the sale of the Bonnie Nell, now the Bonnie Nell merger, and litigation is threatened. In a letter to the old stockholders, President J. W. Pring announces that the company is $40,000 in debt and that George Sturgiss, who purchased the property June 23 last, proposed to pay off that indebtedness by selling the old shareholders share for share at 2 cents each.

Discontented with this statement the minority stockholders held a meeting yesterday afternoon in the offices of Murat Masterson and decided to do things. Twenty minority shareholders were present. An executive committee was appointed, consisting of Messrs. Kirby, Bacon and Bruce. These gentlemen were instructed to go to the offices of the company and make a rigid investigation of its books and general condition. Instead of being deeply in debt they were of the opinion that a large sum was in the treasury and they will demand to know where the money went. They charge that there has been a "carpet" administration. The Bonnie Nell owns 12 acres on Raven hill, Cripple Creek, which is well located. It was located in 1899.

Grandma Mott's Advice to Travelers.

"You should not travel about the country this warm weather without a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mrs. Kate Mott, of Fairfield, Iowa, or "Grandma Mott" as she is familiarly known. "One or two doses of this remedy will always cure the worst case of summer complaint. We keep it always at hand; in fact, we could not keep house without it." For sale by all druggists.

DRIVING CLUB'S NEW QUARTERS

LEASE SECURED ON SECOND FLOOR OF THE OPERA HOUSE BLOCK—SPEND $3,000 FOR IMPROVEMENTS.

A lease on the quarters on the second floor of the Opera house block, formerly occupied by the Elks club and later by the Commercial club, has been taken up by the Colorado Springs Social Driving club.

At a special meeting of the board of directors held yesterday final action was taken in regard to the lease and arrangements are being made to occupy the new quarters by September 1. About $3,000 will be spent in refurnishing the rooms and fitting them up in grand style.

Since the organization of the club last fall it has maintained club rooms in the Midland block, but its large and increasing membership makes it necessary that other quarters be selected. Negotiations have been pending for several weeks and several locations were considered before the Opera house rooms were finally selected.

Sudden Attack of Dysentery Cured.

A prominent lady of Brooklyn, N. Y., writes to inquire where she can obtain Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. She says: "While stopping at a ranch in South Dakota I was taken ill of what seemed to be cholera. They gave me some of this medicine and it cured me. I brought a bottle home and have just used the last of it today. Mother was taken suddenly ill of dysentery and it helped her immediately." For sale by all druggists.

GOOD BODY OF ORE ON TRAIL CLAIM

J. B. CUNNINGHAM AND ASSOCIATES STRIKE IT LUCKY—PROCURED LEASE BY PURCHASE.

Special to the Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Aug. 18.—J. B. Cunningham and associates, who recently secured a lease by purchase on the Trail claim of the United Mines company, have opened up a big body of ore. It will be remembered that there was considerable litigation in the district court of this county about two months ago between Travell and Becker, of the Stratton's Independence companies, and Wm. Kelso for the possession of this property, the outcome of which was the sale of the lease to Cunningham and associates, who immediately commenced active operations.

The new ore body was struck a short distance from the shaft in one of the lower levels and is varying in width anywhere from 10 to 14 feet, carrying values of two ounces of gold to the ton.

The lessees have thousands of tons of ore in sight.

BOB LEE LESSEES ARE ENCOURAGED

Special to the Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Aug. 18.—That the Bob Lee company on Tenderfoot hill has all the earmarks of a producer is the belief of the lessees who are working it and who soon will commence the installation of a plant of machinery in order to push the work of development ahead as fast as possible. The new shaft is now down to a depth of 55 feet and a lateral has been extended for some distance with the outcome that a considerable amount of low grade ore has been exposed. The samples being secured now are running just under pay, but Lessee Kimzy and associates are sure that with further work they will open a mine.

The fact that R. L. Beaver, one of the lucky W. P. H. lessees, holds a large interest in the lease and believes that the W. P. H. dyke goes up through Tenderfoot hill is pretty good evidence that this territory contains something and that the work is worth watching.

It is the intention to sink a shaft considerably deeper in order that the property may be thoroughly and systematically worked at depth.

UNEXPECTED CLAIM IS ON THE SHIPPING LIST

Special to the Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Aug. 18.—Shipments were started again today from the Unexpected property, belonging to the Central Consolidated company, and it is the belief of many that the famous War Eagle dike, from which Sam McDonald took one car of ore worth $14,000, will be encountered. The ore is now measuring from 10 to 15 feet in width and was opened up a short distance from the shaft on the 120-foot level. The ore shows considerable free gold, and gives promise of being another bonanza.

SHERIFF SELLS WHEEL OF FORTUNE PROPERTY

Special to the Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Aug. 18.—The property of the Wheel of Fortune company was sold at sheriff's sale today to satisfy a judgment of $2,621.54, held by Wm. Helm, who purchased the property. The Wheel of Fortune Consolidated company owns a large acreage located on several different hills.

SMALL STREAK OF RICH ORE OPENED IN MODOC

Special to the Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Aug. 18.—Max Burgdorf and associates, operating under lease the ninth level of the Modoc property on Battle mountain, have opened up a small streak of ore that is showing rich values, and from which they expect to clean up a big sum of money.

CRIPPLE CREEK MINING STOCKS

WAS WASTING AWAY.

"I had been troubled with kidney disease for the last five years," writes Robert R. Watts, of Salem, Mo. "I lost flesh and never felt well and doctored with leading physicians and tried all remedies suggested without relief. Finally I tried Foley's Kidney Cure and less than two bottles completely cured me and I am now sound and well." During the summer kidney irregularities are often caused by excessive drinking or being overheated. Attend to the kidneys at once by using Foley's Kidney Cure.—For sale by Hefley-Arbuckle Drug Co.

COLORADO SPRINGS MINING STOCK EXCHANGE

Trade was lively on the Colorado Springs mining stock exchange yesterday. Something over 150,000 shares were sold, mostly in miscellaneous and prospects. A greater number of stocks were traded than for some time past. Prices were generally better. Cripple Creek Consolidated sold up to 7 1/4. Gold Dollar advanced to 9 1-2 and Work to 9 1-2. Banner sold for 2 1-2, Keystone closed at 3 3-8 and Little Bessie at 2 1-8. Among the cheaper sales registered, an increase over previous sales was noted. Brokers are encouraged and think that an active fall market has opened.

PRICES MARKED DOWN SHARPLY

Points of Strength Few in Number—Close Was Weak.

Speculative Interest in Wheat Eliminated—Prices Generally Off.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—Precautionary measures to preserve profits in the shape of selling to realize gave the stock market a reactionary tone as a whole. Some question as to the possible effect of the outcome of the peace conference at Portsmouth and the large inroads of the week on the cash reserves of the banks emphasized the disposition to reduce commitments. The market continued to show a firm undertone, which was manifested by the progressive dullness of the trading as prices declined. The selling, in fact, was not pursued and the market had frequent periods of recovery. It had its points of positive strength as well, although these were few in number and without the prevailing effect that had been seen on previous days of the week. The pushing up of a few stocks was obviously for the purpose of sustaining the rest of the market during the process of profit taking. St. Paul was the conspicuous instance of early strength and it was made to open at a wide advance over last night, while active selling began almost immediately at all other points in the list. Late in the day an enormous accumulation of Pennsylvania set in and served to hold the level of prices for a time. While the market showed resistance from time to time prices were tending downwards at the close which was at about the lowest of the day.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales $3,850,000.

BIG ORE BODY ON CRIPPLE CREEK

J. B. CUNNINGHAM AND ASSOCIATES STRIKE IT LUCKY—PROCURED LEASE BY PURCHASE.

Special to the Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Aug. 18.—J. B. Cunningham and associates, who recently secured a lease by purchase on the Trail claim of the United Mines company, have opened up a big body of ore. It will be remembered that there was considerable litigation in the district court of this county about two months ago between Travell and Becker of the Stratton's Independence company, and Will Kelso for the possession of this property, the outcome of which was the sale of the lease to Cunningham and associates, who immediately commenced active operations.

The new ore body was struck a short distance from the shaft in one of the lower levels and is varying in width anywhere from 10 to 14 feet, carrying values of two ounces of gold to the ton.

The lessees have thousands of tons of ore in sight.

BOB LEE LESSEES ARE ENCOURAGED

Special to the Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Aug. 18.—That the Bob Lee company on Tenderfoot hill has all the earmarks of a producer is the belief of the lessees who are working it and who soon will commence the installation of a plant of machinery in order to push the work of development ahead as fast as possible. The new shaft is now down to a depth of 55 feet and a lateral has been extended for some distance with the outcome that a considerable amount of low grade ore has been exposed. The samples being secured now are running just under pay but Lessee Kimzy and associates are sure that with further work they will open a mine.

The fact that R. L. Beaver, one of the lucky W. P. H. lessees, holds a large interest in the lease and believes that the W. P. H. dyke goes up through Tenderfoot hill is pretty good evidence that this territory contains something and that the work is worth watching.

It is the intention to sink a shaft considerably deeper in order that the property may be thoroughly and systematically worked at depth.

UNEXPECTED CLAIM IS ON THE SHIPPING LIST

Special to the Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Aug. 18.—Shipments were started again today from the Unexpected property, belonging to the Central Consolidated company, and it is the belief of many that the famous War Eagle dike, from which Sam McDonald took one car of ore worth $14,000, will be encountered. The ore is now measuring from 10 to 15 feet in width and was opened up a short distance from the shaft on the 120-foot level. The ore shows considerable free gold, and gives promise of being another bonanza.

SHERIFF SELLS WHEEL OF FORTUNE PROPERTY

Special to the Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Aug. 18.—The property of the Wheel of Fortune company was sold at sheriff's sale today to satisfy a judgment of $2,621.54, held by Wm. Helm, who purchased the property. The Wheel of Fortune Consolidated company owns a large acreage located on several different hills.

SMALL STREAK OF RICH ORE OPENED IN MODOC

Special to the Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Aug. 18.—Max Burgdorf and associates, operating under lease the ninth level of the Modoc property on Battle mountain, have opened up a small streak of ore that is showing rich values, and from which they expect to clean up a big sum of money.

"I had been troubled with kidney disease for the last five years," writes Robert R. Watts, of Salem, Mo. "I lost flesh and never felt well and doctored with leading physicians and tried all remedies suggested without relief. Finally I tried Foley's Kidney Cure and less than two bottles completely cured me and I am now sound and well." During the summer kidney irregularities are often caused by excessive drinking or being overheated. Attend to the kidneys at once by using Foley's Kidney Cure.—For sale by Hefley-Arcularius Drug Co.

COLORADO SPRINGS MINING STOCK EXCHANGE

Trade was lively on the Colorado Springs mining stock exchange yesterday. Something over 150,000 shares were sold, mostly in miscellaneous and prospects. A greater number of stocks were traded than for some time past. Prices were generally better. Cripple Creek Consolidated sold up to 7 1-4. Gold Dollar advanced to 9 1-2 and Work to 9 1-2. Banner sold for 2 1-2, Keystone closed at 3 3-8 and Little Bessie at 2 1-8. Among the cheaper sales registered, an increase over previous sales was noted. Brokers are encouraged and think that the active fall market has opened.

STEEL PRICES WEAK STEEL

Points of Strength Few in Number---Close Was Weak.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—Precautionary measures to preserve profits in the shape of selling to realize gave the stock market a reactionary tone as a whole. Some question as to the possible effect of the outcome of the peace conference at Portsmouth and the large inroads of the week on the cash reserves of the banks emphasized the disposition to reduce commitments. The market continued to show a firm undertone, which was manifested by the progressive dullness of the trading as prices declined. The selling, in fact, was not pursued and the market had frequent periods of recovery. It had its points of positive strength as well, although these were few in number and without the prevailing effect that had been seen on previous days of the week. The pushing up of a few stocks was obviously for the purpose of sustaining the rest of the market during the process of profit taking. St. Paul was the conspicuous instance of early strength and it was made to open at a wide advance over last night, while active selling began almost immediately at all other points in the list. Late in the day an enormous accumulation of Pennsylvania set in and served to hold the level of prices for a time. While the market showed resistance from time to time prices were tending downwards at the close which was at about the lowest of the day.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales $3,850,000.
